

As a telecommuter who depends on broadband for my livelihood, I oppose BellSouth's move to effectively monopolize broadband service. I am willing to pay higher rates for better service from my local ISP, yet BellSouth's move would deny me that access. Their proposal is a terrible deal from the consumer's point of view. Please do not grant their so-called "Petition for Forbearance".

Dianne Schoenberg